Time I will never bestow my heart.—That, George is yours—past praying for.

Ten thousand thanks for this one more proof of constancy," said Trevor. "To-day your truth would indeed be to think you unworthy of love. But I hear footsteps approaching—they are returning from the conservatory. Adieu, dear Adeline for a time. I will not meet Mr. Crofton, but I am not jealous, mind!"

Scarcely had George Trevor left the apartment when Madame La Roche and Mr. Crofton entered from the lawn:—Mr. Crofton rather precipitately took his leave, and Madame La Roche and Adeline were alone.

"Sit down, Adeline," said her mother. "I have something very particular to say to you."

Adeline obeyed with the air of a martyr. Her presentiment had evidently been too true.

"My dear child," continued Madame La Roche, "you are now of an age when you should begin to settle in life. Nature has given you beauty and talents; I have, to the utmost of my ability, given you a good education, and I may say, without flattery that you are capable of making any man happy. Why, then, remain single if you meet with one for whom you can feel an affection?"

Adeline offered no observation, and Madame La Roche continued:—"There is a gentleman who, I am certain loves you. I have seen enough of him to be as certain that he deserves your love in return, and it will give me pleasure, if you tell me that he possesses it."

"My dear mamma," said Adeline, with firmness, "it is better to be candid at once. I know whom you mean, and all you are trying to say; but it is in vain. I do not love him—I never shall love him—and I cannot marry him."

Adeline cried her mother laughing, "you are too quick by far for me.—Do you not love, and cannot marry—George Trevor?"

"George Trevor!" exclaimed Adeline, her breath nearly taken away by astonishment.

"Ah, George Trevor!" said her mother, "so you blush now, and I was not mistaken, I find, in supposing that you loved each other. I am glad of it dear child, and give my most willing consent to your union."

"I feared you would not listen to him, or I would have confided in you," said Adeline, half crying at this sudden & unexpected realization of hopes she scarcely dared to entertain.

"Not listen to him! and that merely because at present he is poor," exclaimed Madame La Roche. Ah, my Adeline, it is love not wealth, that should be considered: and if George Trevor be poor—are we not rich enough? But," exclaimed she, holding down her head and speaking falteringly, "now that I have wished you all happiness and consented to your marriage, will you dear little friend, wish me the same—and consent to my marriage?"

"You? you marry again!" exclaimed Adeline.

"And have you been so blind as to suspect nothing?" said Madame La Roche raising her head and smiling.

"I will conceal it from you no longer. You know that I was married in France at a very early age; but you do not know that before that I had given my heart in England to a youth whose only fault was poverty. My parents had forbidden him the house, and on hearing of my engagement on the Continent, he went out in despair to India. Some two months ago, you may remember, we were at a large ball. How can I describe to you my sensations when I saw there the man whom I had loved in my early youth—whom I still loved! I recognized him even before I heard his name."

"And that name was—Crofton," said Adeline much affected.

"It was," replied Madame La Roche. "He had remained single though he had grown rich enough to buy, if he had willed it, some poor girl—as I myself had been bought. Adeline, he has prevailed on me to change my resolution of never marrying again. Do you wish me joy?"

The mother and the daughter fell into each other's arms and mingled their tears; but assuredly they were not tears of sorrow.

On the same morning the two weddings were celebrated; and opinions were divided whether the matronly or the youthful bride looked the more charming.

HORRIBLE DEATH.—The Fulton Co. New York Republican tells the particulars of a most heart rending casualty which occurred in Oppenheim in that county on the 1st inst. A Miss Sweet had walked from her father's house to her brother's, a distance of about three miles, and when ready to return home, a horse was furnished her by her brother. She had not proceeded far before the horse threw her off; but being prevailed upon to ride she got on again, and was a second time thrown. Being unable to extricate her foot from the stirrup, she was dragged all the way home, and when taken in the house was found to be most shockingly mangled. Her limbs were broken in a number of places, and her abdomen contained large lumps of hard snow occasioned by the hind feet of the horse striking her in that vicinity. She suffered the most excruciating pains and agonies for about two hours afterwards, when death came to her relief. The deceased was about 18 years of age.

Temperance Societies in New Orleans are beginning to flourish.

Twenty-Eighth Congress. FIRST SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 24, 1844.

SENATE.—After the presentation of petitions, a short discussion took place on the bill to grant alternate sections of land to the Territory of Wisconsin to aid in the great work of uniting the waters of the Lakes with those of the upper Mississippi.

The further discussion of the Tariff bill, for which Mr. Woodbury had the floor, was postponed to Monday, at which time, it is expected Mr. McDuffie, in a rejoinder to Mr. Evans, will close the debate, and the question will be taken, whether the senate have jurisdiction of the matter. The Senate went into executive business, and confirmed a few army and navy appointments.

HOUSE.—The minority of the Committee on the four States, the legality of whose elections it contested, reported the election by general ticket illegal and void.

The discussion of the report on the Rules of the house was resumed and continued. The flourishing made by some members about the right of petition, Mr. Payne of Alabama, made the following remarks:

"The opponents of this rule, sir, say that we want to abridge the right of petition. I deny it, sir. I will not say that there is a touch of demagogism in this advocacy of what is called the right of petition; but I believe that the storm is created by many men who could not rise to power in any other way; and they thus obtain notoriety by riding in the whirlwind."

The Report adverse to the proposition for requesting the President to take steps to terminate the joint occupancy of Oregon Territory, was discussed.

The report was opposed in a long speech by Mr. Owen of Indiana, which embodied many interesting facts in relation to that region, and to negotiations with the British government when Mr. Clay was secretary of State. He advocated immediate action for taking possession of the Oregon territory; and was supported in his position by a forcible and animated speech by Mr. Wentworth of Illinois; and was opposed by Mr. Thomasson of Kentucky, who thought that action should be postponed to wait the progress of negotiation which was soon to be opened by the expected British minister.

THURSDAY, Jan. 25, 1844.

SENATE.—The resolution calling on the President for information in relation to Consuls, vice Consuls and commercial agents, whether they have made their regular returns, as to fees received, and to American tonnage within their several consulates and agencies, and returns of seamen provided for and sent home within the last two years, was taken up, and amended so as to enquire how many U. S. Consuls are not citizens of the United States, and agreed to.

The debate on the bill to grant lands, in Wisconsin, for the construction of a canal between Fox and Wisconsin rivers, and the improvement of the navigation of those rivers, was resumed. Mr. Tappan's amendment making the appropriation of the lands, but delaying the execution of the work until Wisconsin should become a state, prevailed. The objection of Mr. Tappan was that, if the work was done now, by the U. S. Engineers, it would cost twice as much as it could be done for by a state or a corporation. The work is a very important one. Nature has almost completed it of herself. An expense of 600,000 dollars will connect the waters of the Great Lakes with those of the Mississippi River. Whether considered in a commercial or a military point of view, it is of vast importance.

The bill was postponed.

A discussion took place in relation to the occupancy of the Oregon Territory, but was postponed to Tuesday.

The Senate went into executive session, but transacted little or no business.

HOUSE.—The time of this body was occupied through the day in considering the Report from the Committee on Elections, on the question of Mr. Gilmer's right to a seat. A minority report was made, in favor of Mr. Goggin's right to the seat. All the papers were ordered to be printed.

FRIDAY, Jan. 26, 1844.

The Senate was not in session.

HOUSE.—After the reading of the journal, a letter was read by C. J. Ingersoll, from the U. S. Gazette and written by the Washington correspondent of that paper, and which contained a statement and remarks concerning the affair between Mr. Adams and Mr. Ingersoll, while the Massachusetts resolutions were under debate. He denied the truth of the language, and called upon the Speaker to interpose his authority, and deprive the author of the letter his privilege of a reporter in the House. He said that the true name of the writer was Sargeant.

A very excited discussion ensued, Mr. Adams taking part with the letter writer and endorsing his statements and opinions, while other members took up the cudgels for Ingersoll. Repeated calls for the order of the day passed unheard, and the war of words raged till a late hour.

SATURDAY, Jan. 27, 1844.

The Senate did not sit to-day.

HOUSE.—Mr. Cave Johnson rose to make the motion of which he yesterday gave notice, to amend the rules of the House, in relation to the reporters of the proceedings of this House. He wished so to amend the rules as to confine the admissions to reporters of the city papers alone. He did not see how the matter could be adjusted otherwise. Laid over.

Mr. Black offered a resolution, that a committee of five be appointed forthwith, to consider and report, as soon as practicable, of the expediency and practicability of instituting, in lieu of the present system of reporting, a corps of reporters, to be appointed and paid by the House, and located therein, whose duty it shall be to attend the House when in session, and to report faithfully and literally everything that is done or attempted to be done.

The Speaker said the subject could only be entertained by general consent. Objections were made, and it went over without any action thereon.

The report of the Committee on Rules was then taken up, and Mr. Wright of Indiana; who had the floor, addressed the House in opposition to the 21st rule. He was followed by Mr. Stiles, of Georgia, who spoke in favor of retaining that rule, until his remarks were cut short by the expiration of the morning hour.—After the reference of some executive documents, which were lying on the Speaker's table, the House resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, for the purpose of taking up the private calendar. The bill for the relief of the widows and orphans, and the relatives of the widows and orphans, and the relatives of the officers, seamen, and marines of the late United States schooner Grampus, being taken up, various amendments were offered, the discussion of which occupied the remainder of the day.

MONDAY, Jan. 29, 1844.

SENATE.—Mr. Simmons of Rhode Island, took his seat, for the first time this session.

After a short debate upon the bill concerning the Fox and Wisconsin rivers, the report on Mr. McDuffie's tariff project, was again taken up, and that gentleman made his closing argument, maintaining and illustrating the grounds he before took. The subject was then passed over, in order to give Mr. Evans an opportunity to reply. The Senate then went into Executive session and shortly after adjourned.

The House was occupied with the reception of resolutions of little general interest through the whole day.

A resolution offered by Mr. Brown of Indiana, for the adjournment of Congress on the 20th of May, afterwards modified to May 1st, was laid on the table, after a vote of two-thirds had been given to consider it at that time.

The subject of the 21st rule was afterwards taken up, and Mr. Stiles of Georgia, continued his remarks upon it, after which the House adjourned.

By the Halls.

HAYTI.—We are indebted to a friend for a copy of the new constitution of the republic of Hayti.

The first section provides for the political division of the republic, and declares that Africans and Indians, or the descendants of either, by one or the other parent, may become citizens; but no white person can become a citizen or hold real estate.

The second section provides for the civil and political rights.

The third section provides for equality in the eyes of the world: All modes of worship shall be equally free. The freedom of the press is guaranteed. Schools to be established for both sexes, the teaching free and gratuitous. Trial by jury is granted. The people have a right to assemble peaceably, and without arms. The powers of the legislature, executive, and judiciary are defined. The executive is a president. The legislature is composed of a senate and house of commons. One third of the senate is renewable every two years. The whole of these, however, much resemble those of the same bodies in the United States. The heads of the four departments are called secretaries of state. The qualifications of voters are fixed.

The colors of the republic are blue and red placed horizontally.

The arms are the palm, surmounted by the liberty cap, and ornamented with a trophy of arms, with the legend—"In union there is strength."

Port au Prince is the seat of government, under the name of Port Republican.

The national fetes are, the independence of Hayti, 1st of January; that of agriculture, the 1st of May; that of Alexander Pétion, 1st of April; that of regeneration, the 27th of January.

Every stranger in Hayti to enjoy protection to his person and goods.

Philadelphia U. S. Gazette.

VERA CRUZ, Dec. 30, 1843.—It appears that it has come to the knowledge of the American minister that an order was given by this government, in July last, to the governors of California Sonora Chihuahua, and other north-western states, to expel all Americans residing there.

A copy of the decree was sent to Mr. Thompson, who applied to the government to know whether it was correct or not, but up to the date of the post leaving he had not received any reply, and it is supposed that he will ask for his passport as there can be little doubt as to the fact of such orders having been given.

FATAL RENCONTRE IN HARRISBURG, PA.—It is with regret that we are called upon to announce a melancholy tragedy, by which a highly respectable citizen has been lost to the community, and a wife and four children are called upon to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and father. For some weeks past a difficulty has existed between Joseph R. Prince, a merchant, and Thomas R. H. Loud, Attorney-at-Law. It appears that Mr. P. had entrusted Mr. L. with some legal business, which was transacted by the latter—but on their settlement, a serious dispute occurred between them, and they separated after a lengthy and angry conversation. This was about two weeks since, and the subsequent endeavors of mutual friends to adjust the difficulty, proved unavailing. This morning at about 11 o'clock, the parties met near the corner of Third and Walnut street—and Mr. P. enquired of Mr. L. as to the truth of certain derogatory language which he (Mr. P.) had understood Mr. L. had made respecting him. The latter denied his right to question him, and was about to move on, when Mr. P. who was armed with a heavy walking stick, caught him by the collar and applied his cane to the shoulders of Mr. L. Before he had struck the third blow, Mr. L. drew a double barreled pistol, took deliberate aim, and fired! Both balls entered the body of his antagonist, just below the left breast, causing instant death! Mr. S. immediately gave himself up, and is now undergoing an examination.

Harrisburg Chronicle, Jan. 26.

AFRAY AT NASHVILLE, Tenn.—An affray of an extraordinary character occurred at Nashville on the 2d inst. It seems that Judge Turley, one of the Judges of our Supreme Court, had offered a wanton insult to a highly respectable and amiable lady of Nashville. The facts were communicated to Major Turner, who, being a relative of the lady, made her cause his own, and meeting the Judge as he was leaving the Court-house, inflicted upon him a caning so sound and hearty that he will have reason to remember it for some time to come.

Knoxville Reg.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—While the widow Turner, of Blackwoodtown, N. J., was on a short visit at the house of a neighbor, on Tuesday evening, her little son, four or five years old, accidentally shot his sister with a gun which it was supposed was not loaded. He says that while he was taking the gun into the room where his sister was standing, it came in contact with the door and was consequently discharged. The little girl died almost instantaneously.

Philadelphia Forum.

MURDER.—A slip from the office of the Norfolk Herald states that a man named Samuel Currier was found dead in a lumber yard in that town, with his skull fractured. He was mate of the schooner St. Thomas of Boston, and belonged to Newburyport. An examination before the Mayor gave some hope that the perpetrators would be discovered. From the evidence it appeared that he was last seen in very bad company.

Balt. American, Jan. 25.

From the St. Louis Republican.

ESCAPE OF PRISONERS FROM THE JEFFERSON PENITENTIARY.—We learn that on Sunday last, twenty of the prisoners in confinement in the Jefferson penitentiary, succeeded by a concerted manoeuvre in escaping from the prison. It appears that they seized the opportunity during Divine service in the prison, to deceive the keeper stationed at the door, and induce him to open it; he was immediately knocked down by a blow from the fist of one of the prisoners, and held fast while 20 made their exit through the entrance. The keeper at the gate, on regaining his feet, fired at one of the prisoners, and wounded him in the thigh. The citizens of Jefferson immediately armed themselves, gave chase to the fugitives, and succeeded in retaking nineteen of the twenty, and the missing one, we are informed, would have been captured, if the horse of the citizen who was in pursuit, had not stuck fast in a quicksand bed in crossing a creek.—During the pursuit, ten shots were fired at the fugitives, but none took effect; they are consequently sound, and ready for a new start.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—The schooner "Star" recently arrived at Charleston, from New Orleans. About 30 miles to the eastward of Charleston Bar, she fell in with Daniel Webber, one of the seamen of the schooner "Alexander Watson," previously reported as having been lost. All on board perished but himself; and so great was his extremity at one time, that he was compelled to chew up the leather sheath of his knife. He was at sea on the wreck for several days.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—Mr. Bechnell, of Richmond, Indiana, on the 13th inst., was crossing the ford at Whitewater on horseback, with his wife behind him, carrying in her arms an infant child, the horse became frightened by a cake of ice drifting against his legs, and precipitated them all in the stream. Mr. Bechnell, who could not swim, was carried by the current down the stream some distance, and with considerable difficulty saved himself. Mrs. Bechnell and her child were both drowned. The wife and mother was last seen elevating her child above the current and imploring help.

It is estimated that about 2,000 persons in Missouri are preparing to emigrate to Oregon Territory next spring.

AN AFFRAY—LOSS OF LIFE.—On the 6th inst., an affray took place at Fairfield, Green county, Ohio, which has resulted in the death of one of the parties. A man named John Parson, was indebted to Isaac Miller, and had a horse which Miller claimed on a promise of a bill of sale. Refusing the aid of the law, Miller proceeded with his son, about 22 years old, to take the animal by force.—He said his son was a good fighter, and invited some neighbors to go along and see the fun. Parson refused to give up the horse, and Miller and his son brought him out of the stable. A violent altercation ensued, when Parson seized a club and felled both the Millers to the ground, by blows over the head. The old man is since dead, and the son is in a very dangerous condition, with his skull fractured.—Cincinnati Gazette.

LOOK OUT! $10's of a broken bank in a Western State, altered to North Kingsdown Bank, at Wickford, R. I. are in circulation—signed J. Reynolds, President and P. T. Hammond, Cashier, and payable to H. L. Stewart. Centre piece, a ship under sail, with Railroad and Agricultural views—right hand end piece, mercantile representations—left hand the figure of Plenty.—Boston Atlas.

TO FRUIT GROWERS.—We were presented last week with a sample of apples which were gathered from two trees in the orchard of Messrs. John and Perry Barney of Seekonk. Two years ago these trees were nearly destroyed by canker worms. They were inoculated with quicksilver in the fall, and the result was the killing of the worm, restoring the tree to newness of life, and the raising of forty four bushels of good pie apples last season. From one of the trees were gathered twenty six bushels, from the other eighteen.—Warren Star.

CURIOUS MARRIAGE.—Jeremiah Fable was married on the 14th inst., to Miss Mary Ann Fox, in the jail of Columbia county, Pennsylvania, in which the bridegroom was temporarily residing, being on his way to the penitentiary, to which he had been sentenced for sixteen months. Nothing but the most abiding constancy could have induced the lady, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, to remain true to her criminal swain.

Steamboat collision and loss of life.—The steamboat Star of the West came into collision with the steamboat Harkaway, on the Ohio river, on the 17th inst., and sunk immediately. The accident occurred about six o'clock in the morning, when most of the passengers were in their berths. Three persons were drowned one deck hand, and two boys, deck passengers.

Attend to your Insurance Policies.—We learn from the last Marshall, Mich. Statesman, that the Mills of Charles M. Lee, of that city, which were recently burned at Marengo, were insured for $15,000. It now appears that when Mr. Lee purchased it in November last, the Policy of Insurance was not transferred to him—he leaving it with his agent to have done. This was neglected—the mill burnt up, and consequently the Policy became null and void.—The Kalamazoo County Mutual office had $10,000 on it, and the Calhoun County Mutual office $5,000.

An Adventure.—On Thursday night last, during the rain, a young horse entered the alley leading up stairs to Dr. Millington's office. The alley not being wide enough to turn, the horse went on up the stairs, until he reached a flat covered house in the rear of the office mentioned. This roof was enclosed with a temporary railing, this the horse found it easy to break over, and landing on the roof of a house a little below, was precipitated from that into a cellar, a fall of some twenty-five feet. Strange to say the horse was not injured.—The horse, when we last saw him, was standing in the cellar very quietly eating a bundle of hay.—St. Charles, Missouri, Adve.

FIRES.—The woollen factory of Messrs. Farrar & Cutler, in Dexter, Me. including the dry house and dye house, was destroyed by fire, night of 25th inst. The fire was discovered in the pick room, about 11 o'clock. The manufactured goods were principally saved. The buildings and machinery were insured at the Worcester Mutual Insurance office for $16,000; the stock and manufactured goods at the Aetna Insurance office, Hartford, $6000. The loss over and above the insurance will be from $13,000 to $15,000.

A fire broke out in Bangor, night of 25th inst. at 11 o'clock, in a barn belonging to Ezra Jewell, Esq., on Essex street which, together with its contents, including three horses, one cow, and twenty-one hogs, were entirely consumed.—Loss about $1500; insured for $350 at the Mutual office, Bangor, $450 at one of the Hartford offices.

The Oil Manufactory of Samuel Leonard at N. Bedford with the Try Work & Whiting House and sheds of Nehemiah Leonard, containing 1500 bbls. sperm oil, were totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning. The property was very valuable, and the insurance is inadequate to cover the loss.

FIRE IN WILLIAMSBURG.—A barn, corn house and shop, with most of their contents, belonging to Mr. Spencer Root, were destroyed by fire on Thursday last. In the barn and corn house, we understand, were ten or twelve tons of hay, and about 150 bushels of corn, purchased a week previous. In the shop were engraved plates for card printing, belonging to Mr. Root, the Messrs. Haydens and Hon. S. Williston. The fire was set in the shop by means of a stove pipe. Insured at the Mutual for $300.

SATURDAY, FEB. 3, 1844.

THE WEATHER.

Accounts from different parts of the Country represent the weather for the last ten days as more severe than has been known for several years.

In New York the rivers and bays are filled with ice, and it is with much difficulty that the steam ferry boats keep up the communication with Long Island, Jersey and Staten Island. The Steamboat Narragan, sett which left Stonington on Tuesday morning was compelled to return, the head of the Sound being closed with ice.

In Philadelphia, the weather has been more severe than has been known for several years.

At Portland (Me.) on Sunday last the thermometer was 17 below zero.

At Brunswick on same day at 25 below zero.

At Bangor on same day at 30 below zero.

At Sharon, (Vt.) on same day at 32 below zero.

At Newburyport on Tuesday morning at 8 1-2 below zero.

The Northampton Courier of Tuesday, says:—

The thermometer most of the time for the last week, has ranged, below zero.—On Friday morning it was 20 degrees below; at noon 6. On Sunday morning, it was 24 degrees, and on the low lands 30.—On Monday morning 12. This morning 12. The sleighing was never better or more used than it has been for the past four weeks.

All the harbors at the eastward are now closed by ice.

In this place we have had remarkably cold weather for the last week, and it will be seen by our Meteorological table for January that the average of the month has been lower than at any time for the last 20 years.

There has been no western mail received at our Post Office since Wednesday last.

Death of Judge Gaston.—The whole country will hear with pain the death of the Hon. William Gaston, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of North Carolina. He died of apoplexy, at Raleigh, on Tuesday 23d ult., having been seized with the disease in the Court House. He was formerly a distinguished member of Congress, and has left behind him no purer or better man.

A numerous meeting of the friends of Henry Clay, was held at the Town Hall, in this place last evening, for the purpose of appointing Delegates to attend the Whig State Convention, to be holden in Providence on the 7th inst: The meeting was called to order by A. Winslow, Jr. and organized by the appointments of Michael Freeborn, Chairman, and James Atkinson and Samuel A. Parker, Secretaries.

A vote passed that fifty delegates be chosen, in addition to the Senator and Representatives in the Legislature, and they were accordingly elected, with power to fill vacancies. A committee was then chosen to select officers and draft a Constitution for a CLAY CLUB, to make report at an adjourned meeting at the same place, on the evening of the 9th.

The body of a person, supposed to have come to his death by freezing, was found in Cranston, last Monday morning near the residence of Elder Otis W. Potter. He was well dressed, and appeared to be a foreigner, from 35 to 40 years of age, of dark complexion and hair, five feet ten inches in height and apparently blind in one eye.

MASSACHUSETTS.—The seventh trial for the election of a member of Congress from the 3d district of Massachusetts, took place on Monday last, and has resulted in the election of Mr. Abbott the Whig candidate, by a majority of 63 votes. The Massachusetts delegation in Congress will now be completed.

We learn from the Norfolk Beacon of Thursday that a Naval General Court Martial has been ordered to convene on board the U S ship Pennsylvania on the 5th of February next.

A bill has been introduced by Mr. Hardin into the Senate of Kentucky, making it a penitentiary offence to deal faro in that State, or to manufacture marked cards.—It is expected to pass without much opposition.

WISCONSIN.—A decisive vote has been taken in the territorial Legislature of Wisconsin, against the formation of a State government.

The New Hampshire Gazette, published at Portsmouth, Eng., entered upon its 90th year a fortnight since.

Marry a man for his good sense, amiable temper, his sound morals, his habits of industry and economy, and you will then have a good husband.

Proceedings of the Assembly.

From the Providence Journal.
Friday, Jan. 26.

SENATE.—Mr Potter of Westerly called up the bill relating to hawking and peddling. After several amendments, the bill was concurred in.

A message was received from the House of Representatives communicating sundry votes and acts of the House.

The votes of the House upon the following petitions were concurred in, viz: petition of Fire Engine Company in East Greenwich; petition of Thomas Gordon and Margaret Barney for liberation.

The act to regulate the election of civil officers was taken up and read first time.

Several amendments were suggested, and the bill laid on the table and made the special order of the day for Thursday next.

The following were read and passed, viz:

The act for the preservation of stakes and buoys within the waters of this State. Act in relation to the Providence and Pawtucket turnpike road, now belonging to the State. Act to prevent laying vessels to and landing or unloading wood or merchandise upon the bridge over Apponaug river. Act appropriating the expense of repairing Hunt's bridge among the towns of North Kingstown, Warwick and East Greenwich. Act to prevent canoes and boats being made fast to the bridge at Pawtucket Falls. Act regulating the seizure of cider barrels. Act to prevent damage being done to Weybosset Bridge in Providence. Act relative to estrays. Act to regulate the measuring of grain, salt and sea coal. Act establishing a method of gauging.

The following acts were read first time, viz:

Act regulating proceedings in case of forcible entry and detainer.

Act to prevent fraud in fire-wood and charcoal exposed for sale.

Act relating to firemen and fire companies.

The Governor laid before the Senate a communication from the Mayor of the city of Providence, inviting the members of the Senate to visit the public schools in Providence.

The Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—A message was received from his Excellency, announcing certain resolutions of the Massachusetts Legislature, recommending an amendment of the Constitution of the United States. The amendment proposed is as follows: "The third clause of the second section of the first article shall read in the words following: Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which are or may be included within this union, according to the respective numbers of free persons, excluding Indians not taxed."

On motion of Mr Cranston, the resolutions were laid on the table.

The revision of the laws was then taken up.

The election law was passed.

Act to prevent fraud in firewood and charcoal exposed to sale. Passed.

A debate arose upon this act, upon the question whether there should be cut four feet in length. Mr Ballou moved that the section which imposed a penalty upon any person offering wood of a less length in open market should be stricken out. The House decided not to strike it out.

The following bills were then passed:

Act establishing a method of gauging.

Act to regulate the measuring of grain, salt and sea coal.

Act in relation to firemen and fire companies.

Act relative to estrays.

Act directing proceedings in cases of forcible entry and detainer.

Act in relation to sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, and jailers.

Mr F. Brown moved the provision requiring sheriffs to be freeholders, should be stricken out. It was stricken out.

An act for the relief of poor prisoners imprisoned for debt.

The petition of Job M. Knight vs. creditors, was received and referred.

The bond of the receiver of the Rhode Island Agricultural Bank, was received.

The House then adjourned.

In the debate to prevent clandestine marriages, on Tuesday, Mr S. Sherman suggested that the penalty for uniting black and white persons in marriage had been omitted in the report of the committee on the revision. The suggestion was taken up and acted upon, and the section from the old act, imposing such a penalty and declaring such marriages void, was inserted. It was erroneously reported that the penalty was struck out.

Saturday, Jan. 27.

SENATE.—The Governor laid before the Senate a report from the acting Adjutant General, containing an abstract of the annual return of the militia of the State for the year 1843, which was received and ordered to be communicated to the House of Representatives.

A resolution of the House of Representatives, appointing Messrs Ames, Barber and J. Y. Smith, a committee to settle the accounts of the late Edward Carrington with the State, was concurred in, with the addition of Messrs Lawton and Eaton.

The vote of the House upon the petition of Mary T. Carr, for sale of real estate, was read and concurred in.

The following resolution was offered by Mr Potter, and adopted:

Resolved, That Albert G. Greene and Wm. S. Patten, together with such as the House of Representatives may add, be appointed a committee to inquire into the expediency of removing the glass from the portraits of Washington, in the Senate chambers in Providence and Newport, and also what steps, if any, are necessary to be taken for the preservation of said portraits.

The Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr Ames offered a resolution appointing a committee to settle the accounts of Gen. Carrington with the State.

Mr F. Brown said, he had no objection to the resolution, but he should like to know how the members of the Governor's Council had the power to draw money from the State treasury, in such sums as they please.

Mr Ames stated, that under the resolution of the General Assembly authorizing the Governor to draw upon the treasury to meet the expenses of the insurrection, Gov. King, had given drafts upon the General Treasurer in favor of such persons as he placed confidence in, whom he appointed disbursing officers. Gen. Carrington was one of these, and hence these accounts arose.

The resolution passed.

A debate arose, without any motion, upon the affairs of the Scituate Bank. To the inquiry of Mr Brayton, Mr J. Y. Smith stated, that the former commissioners had not yet settled with the committee, and had not yet fixed a day when they would settle.

Mr F. Brown said, that they were ready to settle those accounts at any time.

The acts were examined to discover the powers of this committee, and on motion of Mr Brayton, their powers were increased, so as to authorize them to send for persons and papers.

The report of the committee on accounts was then taken up, and a number of accounts allowed. The account of the Marshal of Massachusetts, for serving the process in the suit between this State and Massachusetts, was referred to a special committee, to report next session. Messrs Cranston, Uplike, and T. Whipple, were appointed.

The petition of James Phalen & Co., for alteration of the laws relating to the sale of foreign lottery tickets, was received and referred to the committee on the judiciary.

The report of the Adjutant General was read and accepted. It appears by this report, that the total of the active militia is 1047 men. Of these, 117 are cavalry, 410 artillery, and 520 infantry, who are fully armed and equipped. The number of the enrolled militia appears to be 15,510.

The petition of sundry citizens of Providence, relative to the license law, was received and laid on the table.

A resolution was sent down from the Senate appointing a committee to attend to the preservation of the portraits of Washington belonging to this State. Messrs Albert G. Greene, William S. Patten, and King were appointed such committee.

A resolution was sent down from the Senate authorizing the inspectors of the State Prison to raise the salary of the warden of the State Prison to $200, in their discretion. Mr T. Whipple opposed the concurrence with the Senate, and Messrs Ames, Ballou, Branch and Seagrave supported it. The resolution was concurred in.

The House then adjourned.

Monday, January 29.

SENATE.—There was no quorum.

HOUSE.—The report of the Hon. William R. Staples, the committee for the revision of the laws, was read and accepted.

A communication was received from the Mayor of the city of Providence, inviting the members of the House to visit the public schools. The invitation was accepted, and Wednesday morning was assigned as a time for the purpose of the visit.

The petition of Wm. Spink and others, respecting slavery, was received and referred to the select committee on that subject.

The House then took up the revision of the laws.

An act in relation to the election and duties of town officers was read the second time.

Mr Whipple moved the highest number of town council men to be reduced from 11 to 7, the lowest number from 5 to 3. This amendment was adopted. The bill then passed.

The act relating to the poor was read and passed to a second reading.

The House then adjourned.

On Tuesday, both Houses were principally occupied with the revision of the laws, which as stated in the Providence Journal, is now nearly completed.

On the petition of Luther M. Borden and others, praying that the State would assume the expenses of the suit against them, carried up by appeal to the Supreme Court of the U. S. on account of proceedings under the act declaring martial law in this State, the prayer of the petition was agreed to in the House by the following vote—ayes 32, nays 11.

Wednesday, Jan 31, 1844.

SENATE.—The act to prevent fraud in fire wood and charcoal, exposed for sale, was taken up, and on motion of Mr Ballou, referred to Messrs. Potter, of Westerly, and Eaton.

The vote of the House, upon the petition of Job M. Knight, for stay of proceedings, was concurred in.

Also, the vote upon the petition of Duty Green, for leave to sell real estate.

An act to prevent certain vexatious suits, was read first time.

Mr Greene, of Providence, then explained to the Senate the object of the bill.

The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr Sherman offered an act adjourning the court of common pleas for the county of Washington to the second Monday of May. This was read a second time and passed.

The revision of the laws was then taken up.

Several acts relating to fisheries were read the first time, and, on motion of Mr Uplike, were referred to Judge Staples for consideration.

The case of convict No. 46 in the State prison, was then taken up.

After some debate the House non concurred with the amendment of the Senate discharging the prisoner.

The votes were passed upon the petitions of Henry Brown for transfer of license, and of William Philips for sale of real estate.

The report of the committee of the public money was read and accepted.

The revision of the laws was then taken up, and the act establishing net weight and the weight of the bushel of certain articles was read second time and passed. The amount proposed by the committee and adopted was, that the bushel of all roots should be fifty pounds.

The following acts were then read the first time and passed to a second reading.

Act requiring the clerk of the court to account, and for other purposes.

An act to prevent excessive riding in the places therein mentioned.

Act in relation to the Indian tribe in this State.

Act in relation to theatrical exhibitions and places of amusement.

An act in relation to turnpike roads and toll bridges and keepers of toll gates.

An act to prevent the circulation of private securities as currency.

An act for the erection and support of guide posts upon public roads.

An act directing the keepers of jails in this State, to receive and safe keep all prisoners committed under the authority of the United States.

An act in relation to the discharge of fire arms, and firing and letting off fire works.

An act establishing auctioneers.

On motion of Mr Ames, the bill was sent to the committee on finance.

The petition of George Wilson, for restoration of privileges, was received and referred to the committee on the judiciary.

The petition of Benjamin Aborn and others, for incorporation of Rhode Island Insane Asylum, was read and referred.

The following acts were then read for the first time.

Act for the prevention of trespasses. This was amended so as to make the penalty for cutting down of any tree, double the value of it.

Act concerning dogs.

Act imposing certain animals in certain cases, and for recovering damages that shall be done by them.

Act to regulate the measure of fish sold for manure.

Act relative to the passing of teams and carriages in public highways.

The act in relation to lotteries and lottery tickets was read and laid on the table.

Act declaring what is real and what personal estate in certain cases. This was referred to Messrs Tillinghast, Pollard and Sheffield, with instructions to report the bill with a section to include stationary steam engines used in propelling machinery as real estate.

Mr Uplike was then added to the committee on finance.

The House then adjourned.

Thursday, Feb. 1, 1844.

SENATE.—The Governor laid before the Senate a letter from the Hon. John Brown Francis, resigning his seat as a Senator from the town of Warwick.

The act to prevent certain vexatious suits, was read a second time and passed; also, the act relating to principals and agents or factors.

The amendment of the Senate to the vote of the House upon the memorial of the Inspectors of the State Prison, was returned non-concurred.

The act to adjourn the court of common pleas in the county of Washington was read and concurred in.

The act prescribing the time and place of holding the supreme court and court of common pleas, was read twice and concurred in.

The act substituting net weight for gross weight, and a certaining the weight of certain articles.

On motion of Mr Greene, the bill was referred to Messrs Smith, Lawton and Bailey.

The act providing for the relief, support, employment and removal of the poor, was read first time.

Mr Manchester offered an act relating to the overseers of the poor and to the asylum in the town of Portsmouth, which was passed.

Mr Eaton, from the committee to whom was referred the bill in relation to fire wood and charcoal, exposed for sale, reported the bill with amendments.

The bill relating to the weights of certain articles, was reported from the committee, and passed with an amendment.

The Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The act incorporating the Rhode Island Insane Asylum was passed.

The report of the committee on French spoils was read and received. This was a document of considerable length, going into the whole history of the origin of these claims and the negotiations and reports concerning them. The following resolutions were also reported.

Resolved, That prior to the convention between the United States and France in 1800, there were large and just claims due from France to citizens of the United States for spoils on their commerce, which claims were asserted as just by the Government of the United States, and were not rejected by France.

Resolved, That by the ratification of said convention, the Government of the United States released France from the payment of said claims, in consideration of a corresponding release from the claims of France against the United States, and from the obligations of the treaties which had before existed between the two nations; and that, in the opinion of this Assembly, the said mutual release has been of great advantage to the United States as a nation.

Resolved, That this was such an appropriation of private property to public use, as, in the opinion of this Assembly, entitles the said citizens to just compensation from the Government of the United States.

Resolved, That a copy of the report and accompanying resolutions be transmitted, by the Secretary, to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, and that they be requested to use their exertions for procuring a just indemnification to the said citizens.

Mr F. Brown opposed the passage of the resolutions. He said the whole history in the report went to show that there was no claim at all.

Mr Uplike said that there was no dispute about the facts. The United States acknowledged the debt to be due; there had been repeated reports in its favor, and appropriations had passed one House of Congress to pay these claims.

The resolutions then passed.

The license law was then taken up.

The bill reported by the committee was then read, and a bill presented by Mr Barber as a substitute.

This bill led to a long debate, when the bill and amendment were referred to a select committee.

Mr Ames presented the petition of Jediah Sprague for compensation. This was for property taken from Mr Sprague at Chepachet, while the troops were there.

After some discussion between Messrs Ames, Cranston, Sherman and Brown, the petition was referred to a select committee.

The House then adjourned.

In the life and death of this truly lovely Christian was exemplified the matchless power of the Gospel to support and sustain those who make it the rule of their life and foundation of their hopes; The bitter cup of affliction was often held to her lips, but always received with a meek and uncomplaining spirit. "The Cup which my Father has given me shall I not drink it?" was the language of her soul, and when her summons came she met it as the voice of a friend calling her to rest. She died as she had for many years lived, trusting only in the merits of her Redeemer who had made the grave to her the gate of Victory. (Cousin.)

POETRY.

The Answered Prayer.

BY MISS S. C. EDGARTON.

I prayed for Beauty—for the magic spell
That binds the wisest with its potent thrall
That I within fond human hearts might dwell
And shine the fairest in the mortal hall.
I would have seen the loveliest bond the knee
The loveliest bow, o'er-dazzled by my charms;
While he I long had vainly—ah he,
Subdued, should clasp me fondly in his arms!

But Beauty o'er my spirit waved her wing,
Yet shed no brightness on my form or face;
And passing years but darker shadows fling
Upon the cheek where care hath left its trace.

My prayer, if heard in heaven, hath been denied;
No heart bows humbly 'neath my beauty's sway;
And he I loved now seeks a fairer bride,
With brighter blushes and a smile more gay.

I prayed for riches. Oh! for lavish wealth,
To pour in golden showers on those I loved
I would have gladly spent my youth and health,
Could I, by gifts like these, my love have proved.

I prayed for riches, that before God's shrine
I might with gifts and costly tributes kneel;
And through the treasures of Golconda's mine
Too poor to show the favor of my zeal.

Alas! wealth came not; and the liberal deeds
My heart divided, my hand must fail to do;
And though o'er prostrate truth my spirit bleeds,
I cannot give the gift I would bestow.

In vain the aid of magic gold I woo
The poor may plead to me for daily food,
And those I love in lowly want may pine;
I will pour out for them my heart's warm blood.

But other gifts than this can ne'er be mine.
I prayed for Genius—for the power to move
Hard hearts, and reckless minds, and stubborn wills,
To execute the holy deeds of love.

And light Truth's fires upon a thousand hills,
I prayed for Eloquence to plead the cause
Of human rights, and God's eternal grace;
To cry aloud o'er Mercy's outraged laws,
And speed the great redemption of my race.

But all in vain. My feeble tongue can breathe
No portion of the fire that burns within;
In vain my fancy vivid thoughts may weave
In scorching flames to vanquish human sin.

Powerless my words upon the air float by,
And wrong and crime, disdain the weak crusade;
While vice gleams on me its exultant eye,
And bids me show the conquests I have made.

I prayed for Peace—for a strong heart to bear
The keen privations of my humble fate;
For patient faith to struggle with despair,
And shed a brightness o'er my low estate.

I prayed to be content with humble deeds,
With "widow's mites," and scanty charity;
To follow meekly where my duty leads,
Though through the lowliest vale of life it lie.

This prayer was answered; for a peace divine
Spread through the inmost depths of all my heart;
I felt that that same blessed lot was mine
Which fell on her who chose the better part.

What though the world abroad ne'er hears my name?
What though no chains upon weak hearts I bind?
It is a happier lot than wealth or fame
To do my duty with a willing mind!

A Chronological Account of all material occurrences from the first settlement of RHODE ISLAND.

1737.

At the Annual Election holden at Newport on the 4th of May, the following persons were elected Officers for this year:—

John Wanton, Governor.

George Hazard, Deputy Governor, ASSISTANTS.

Samuel Vernon, Peter Bours, Ezekiel Warner, Joseph Fanner, George Cornell, William Anthony, John Wickes, Philip Arnold, Jeremiah Gould, Rouse Helme, James Martin, Secretary, James Honyman, Attorney General, Gideon Wanton, Treasurer.

An act was passed by the General Assembly, to exempt persons appointed to the Engines in the town of Newport, from serving in the Militia or acting as Jurors.

An act passed for fixing the bounds of the compact part of the town of Newport.

His Majesty's ship Tarter, of 20 guns, being in the harbor of Newport, the Assembly ordered that 20 of the best Sheep be procured and presented to the commander for the use of the crew of said Ship.

Those Laboring Under

sickness can at once relieve themselves from the thousand maladies that flesh is heir to if they will only follow the counsels of nature, and take the medicine which best assists her in her operations. That medicine is the Vegetable Life Medicines of Dr. Moffat. The wonderful and miraculous cures which his Life Pills and Phenix Bitters have everywhere performed, place them before all other medicines ever offered to the public. Composed entirely of vegetable substances they overcome the disease without corrupting the blood or weakening and destroying the constitution. Their nature is such that when taken into the stomach they are digested like other food, and are distributed throughout the whole system, giving additional strength to the sound parts, and purifying and restoring the weak and diseased. They not only act as a purgative in cleansing the bowels of all impurities, but they open the pores of the whole body, assist and promote all the animal secretions, and give a healthy vigor to the whole system. This is not idle declamation uttered without truth and only for effect, but is fully corroborated by innumerable letters and certificates which daily pour in upon the proprietor of the Vegetable Life Pills, from thousands who are grateful for a recovery of their health—a recovery which all other remedies had failed to procure them, and which they despaired of ever receiving. It is thus fully proved that the operations of nature are simple, and that disease of all kinds may easily be eradicated if the right course is taken to effect their cure. That course, we repeat, is to use Dr. Moffat's Life Pills and Phenix Bitters. The beneficial results they produce on the human system are apparent as soon as their use is commenced. A single box cannot be taken without giving a relief to the sufferer which will convince him of their efficacy. All who value their health, their time, and their money, will at least try the Life Medicines when attacked with sickness. Being composed entirely of vegetables no injury can possibly arise from such a trial, and once tried they will forever supercede the necessity of a physician's services, or a physician's exorbitant charges.

These Valuable Medicines are for sale at

FALES CYPRIAN

HAIR TONIC,

For the Growth, Preservation and Restoration of the Hair.

NO matter how bald a person may be, a growth of hair will be produced, and as naturally too as herbage grows on the plain, or the lily in the valley. This Tonic is warranted to cleanse the hair from Dandruff, and every other accumulating substance. Is your hair dry and falling off?—The Tonic will moisten and fix it firmly in the head. Is your hair thin or your head bald?—The Tonic is warranted to satisfy the largest desires in thickening the hair in the first case and covering the Bald Head with natural hair, in the second. It is composed of those remedial agents that restore the skin at once to a sound and healthy condition, when thus restored, you will soon discover on the head, a short soft and beautiful growth of young hair, gradually increasing in length, till it becomes like your other hair was before you began to lose it.

FALES' COUGH, WORM, HEADACHE and Diarrhea or Dysentery LOZENGES are safe, certain and agreeable remedies for the diseases for which they are recommended.

Numerous, speedy and surprising cures have been effected by their use, hence their popularity.

Dr. F. O'NEILL'S ORACLE OF HEALTH. (Philadelphia) Says that Fales' Medicated Lozenges are considered by those who have used them, to be far superior to Sherman's or any other introduced into that market.

THE COUGH LOZENGES, are beneficial in all cases of common colds, hooping cough, asthmatic affections, inflammation of the throat and lungs; they are also particularly beneficial for the croup, and a very good substitute for the celebrated HIVE SYRUP, Cough Candies, Quinsey Cordials, Pulmonary Balsams, &c.

THE WORM LOZENGES, are a safe and sure remedy for Worms. Two or three is a dose for very small children, and five or six for larger ones.

THE DYSENTERY LOZENGES, are a certain and agreeable remedy for Diarrhea, and Bowel Complaints of Children—Full directions as to diet and manner of taking them, accompany each box.

THE HEADACHE OR CARBON LOZENGES, are beneficial in cases of nervous headache in febrile affections of a typhoid character. They are useful in Rheumatism and peripneumony; also in eruptive diseases, to favor the eruption or bring it back when it has suddenly receded from the skin, as sometimes happens in measles and small pox.

SPENCER'S

Pills, Syrup, and Plaster.

THE numerous proofs daily received of the utility of SPENCER'S VEG-ETABLE PILLS, not only from professional men, but also from individuals, previously unknown to the proprietor, many of them guardians and instructors of youth, who speak from personal knowledge, together with the rapid sale, completely satisfies him that he has not been deceived. Those recommendations have fully sustained it as a certain cure for the headache, as also a sure remedy for many other complaints it used according to the directions which accompany them.

For sale by MARY TILLEY, No. 49 Spring street.

NEWPORT DYE-HOUSE.

John H. Clegg SILK, COTTON, and WOOLLEN DYER. WOULD respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has taken the DYE HOUSE, formerly occupied by J. Viner, situated in Tanner street, where he is prepared to dye and finish at 10 days notice in the best manner, the following articles, viz:

Brondeloths, Silks, Cassimeres, Crapes, Merinos, Sattinets, Bombazines, Pongees, Hosiery, &c. &c.

Also, permanent colors on carpet yarn, merino, crisscross, bombazine, and crape dresses; gentlemen's woollen garments, such as dress, frock and great coats, suits, vests, and pantaloons—died and pressed without ripping.

He will also clean gentlemen's woollen garments of every description, in a neat style—merino and Cashmere shawls cleaned and whitened, without injury to the border—carpets and woollen table cloths cleaned also.

All articles left at the Dye House in Tanner Street, or the following Agents will receive prompt attention.—Mrs. Ann M. Eddy, next north of the Perry Factory. A. M. Thomas, Wickford, John Hedley, Portsmouth. February 19, 1842.

NEWPORT STEAM Planing, Sawing & Grist MILL.

THIS establishment is now in successful operation, in Bull street, and prepared to execute all kinds of work usually done at similar concerns.

The PLANING MACHINE is new; and, possessing advantages over most of the machines in use at the present day, is prepared to furnish specimens of work, equal at least to those of any other establishment in the United States.

CIRCULAR and UPRIGHT SAWS, for splitting boards, plank and timber, and fitting various kinds of lumber for carpenters' use, are also attached.

The Grist Mill comprises two pair of French Burr Mill Stones, which are now in such high repute and general use throughout the country.

As it can hardly be expected in first starting an establishment of this kind, in this place, that the patronage will be sufficient to warrant the hope of steady employ, and that the public may depend upon having work done at stated times without disappointment, we propose to start the mill every Tuesday morning, and keep it running three days in each week—say Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday—and occasionally other days of the week, as circumstances may require.

In thus establishing what we believe has been long needed in Newport, and which all must acknowledge to be a great benefit to the public, individually and at large, both by securing to our townsmen the employment which has heretofore been bestowed upon the mechanics of other places, and effecting within our own community what we have been dependent for upon every community in the neighborhood, we need only ask of our townsmen such encouragement as the merits of our concern may entitle us to expect.
